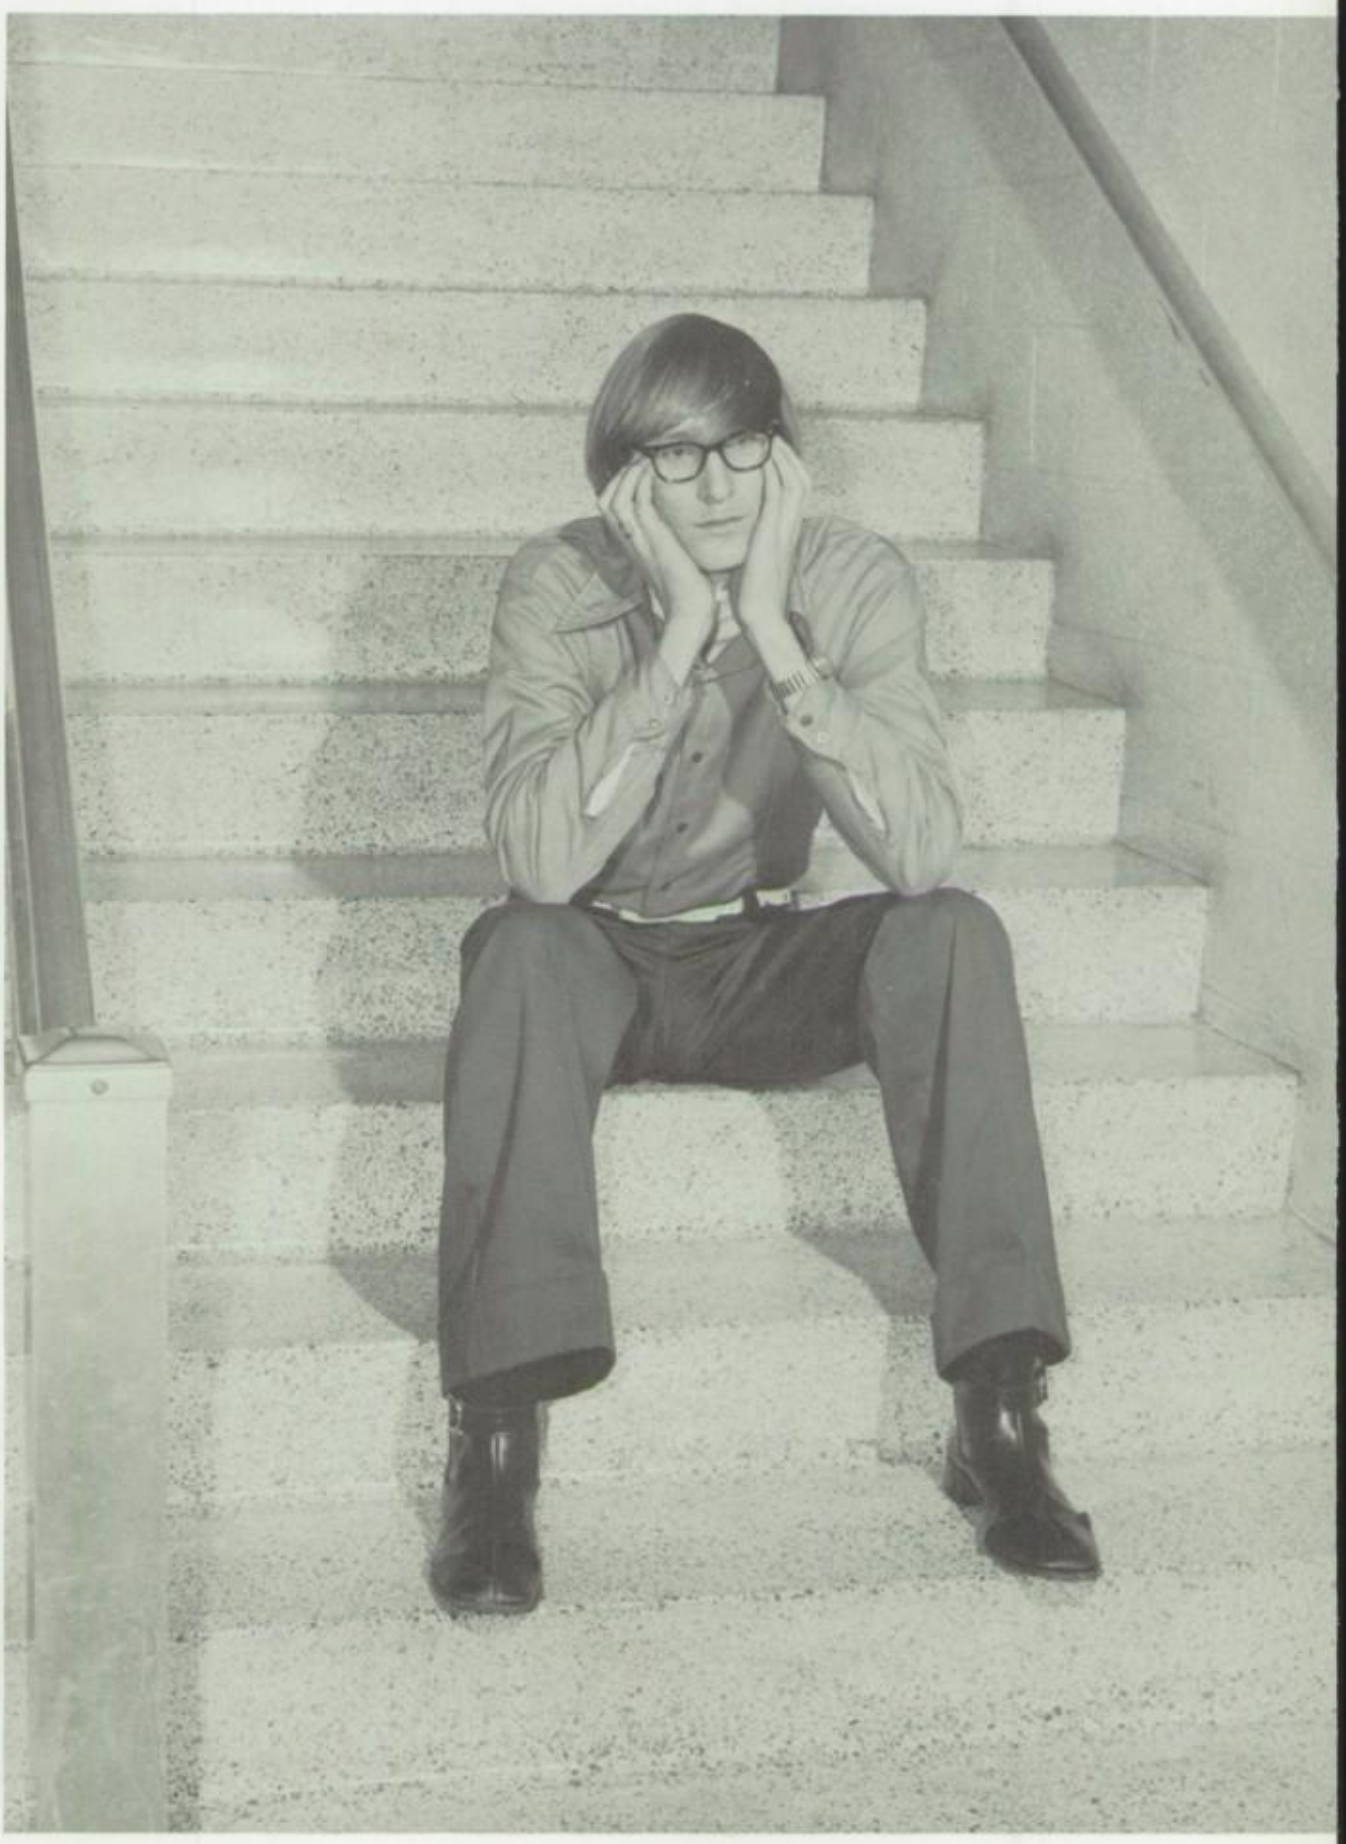
What is the student without the school?

Education--A companion which no misfortune can depress, no crime can destroy, no enemy can alienate, no despotism can enslave . . . Without it, what is man? A splendid slave, a reasoning savage.

Joseph Addison

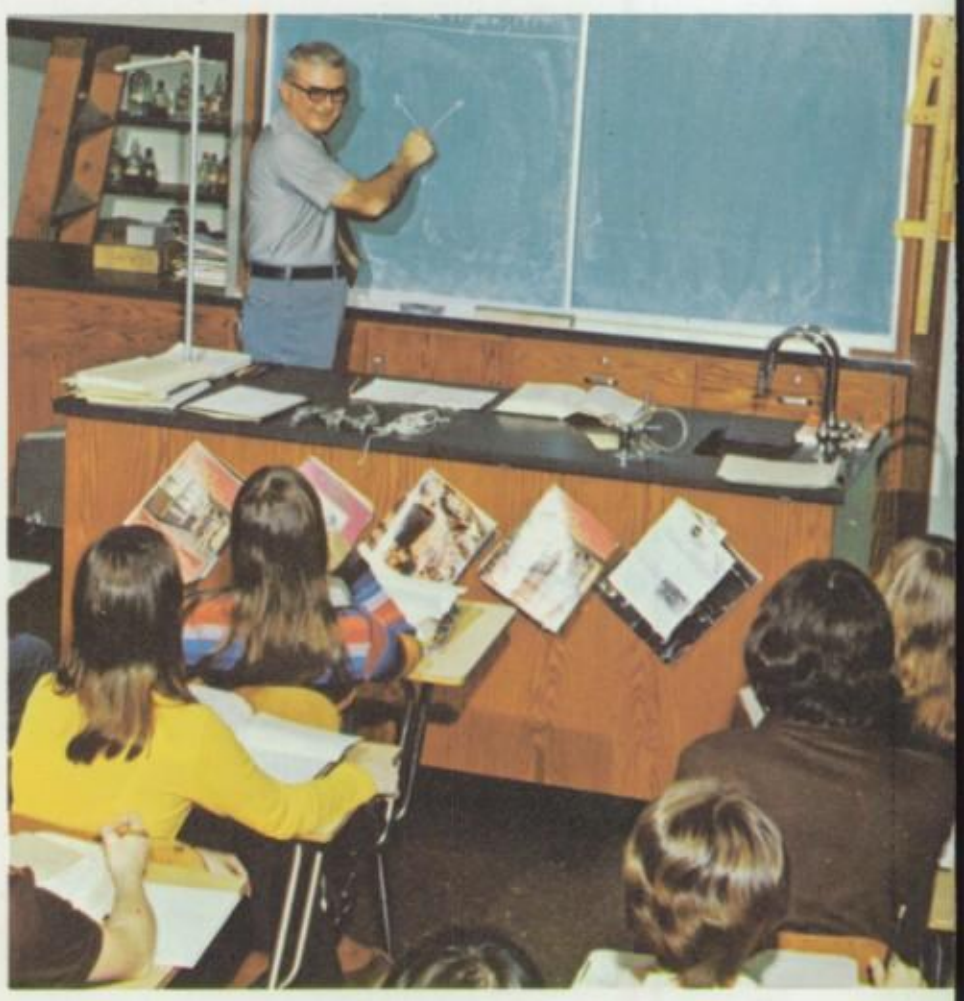


What is the school without the student?

The school is a man-made institution which brings enlightenment to those who study there. Its purpose is to continue and advance man's society. But how can this be done without a man to be educated?

What sculpture is to a block of marble, education is to the soul . . .

Joseph Addison

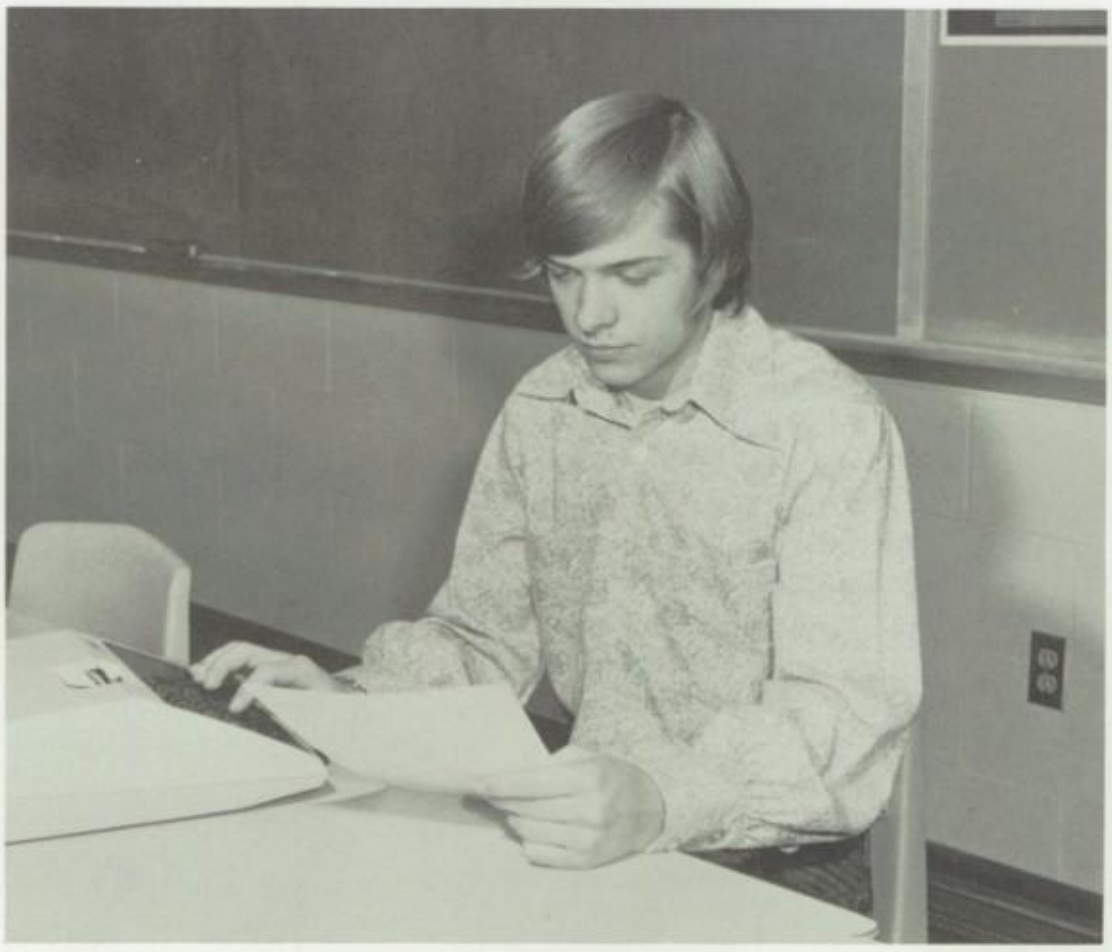


A teacher is the tool of education; the student is his project. Like the sculptor, a teacher needs something to mold and shape into a meaningful object. Without a student, the teacher could not accomplish anything, and the student would be nothing.

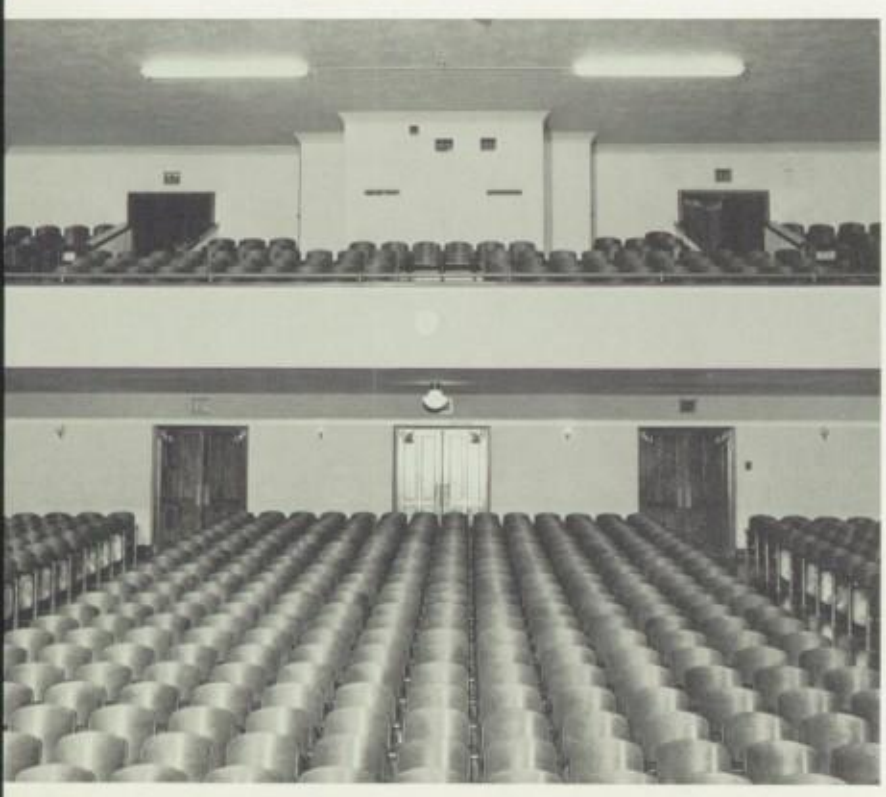
Culture is "To know the best that has been said and thought in the world."
Matthew Arnold

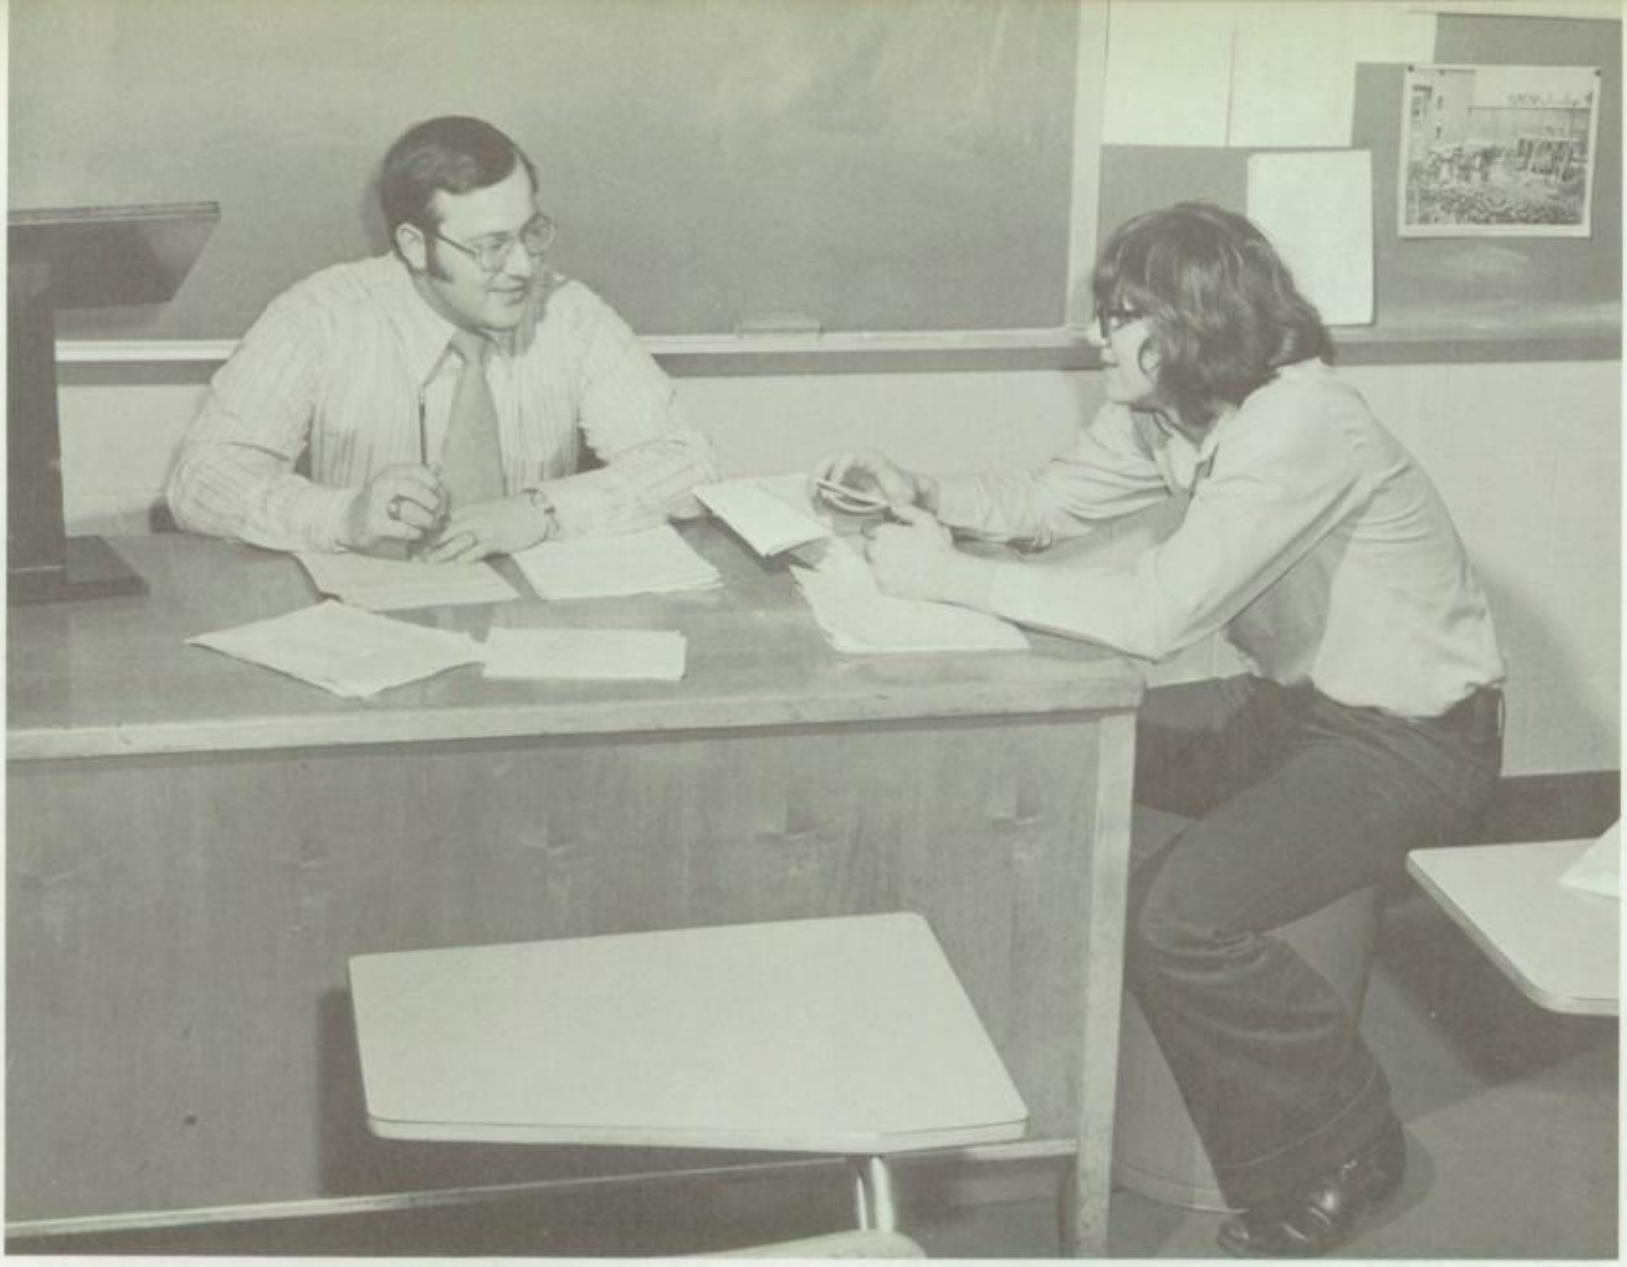
Where should the scholar live? In solitude or in society?

Longfellow

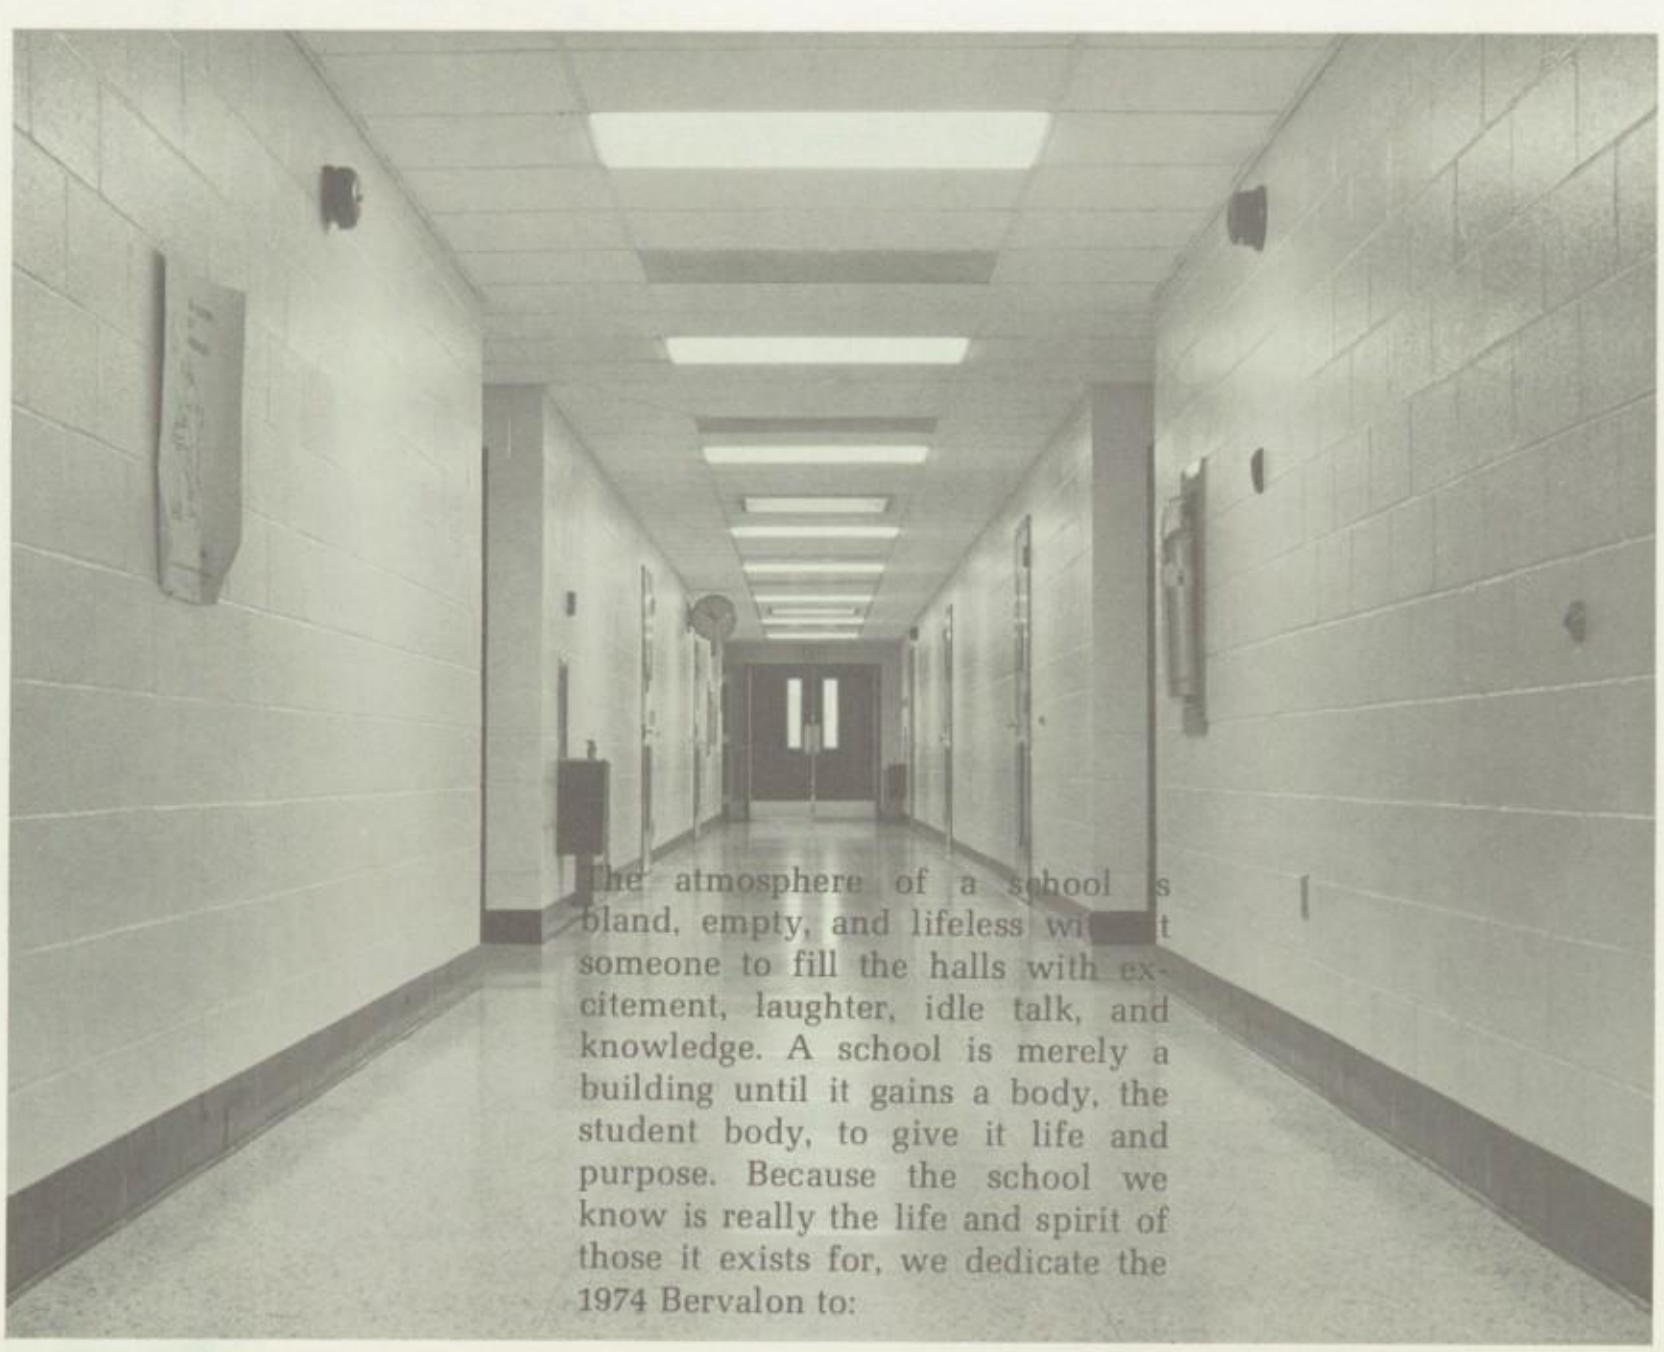


Everyone chooses where he will spend his life. Usually the choice depends upon his knowledge and skill. The world would be in despair if some scholars didn't quietly calculate formulas or read books. Science, math, the arts, everything would be at a standstill. Yet, if some weren't mixed in with society's beat, communication, travel, commerce, and government would soon have no purpose. Society would disappear.





The fact that without the student, the teacher couldn't teach, the administration wouldn't have anyone to guide, and the leaders wouldn't have any followers is not considered even though it exists. If the pupil failed to be a pupil, no one would be anywhere. Culture and society would be at a loss. And, yes, what would fill the halls of the school? Silence.



The atmosphere of a school is bland, empty, and lifeless without someone to fill the halls with excitement, laughter, idle talk, and knowledge. A school is merely a building until it gains a body, the student body, to give it life and purpose. Because the school we know is really the life and spirit of those it exists for, we dedicate the 1974 Bervalon to:

The students of Berlin Brothersvalley.

The roots of education are bitter, but the fruit is sweet.
Aristotle

Future Farmers of America is a national organization of high school and post-secondary students preparing for careers in agricultural production, processing, supply and service, mechanics, horticulture, forestry, and national resources. The primary purposes of the FFA are to develop agricultural leadership, cooperation and citizenship. Through participation in FFA activities, young men and women, ages 14-21, interested in all aspects of agricultural industry learn how to speak in public, conduct and take part in meetings, handle financial matters, solve their problems, and assume civic responsibility. Mr. Doyle E. Paul, their worthy advisor, was selected outstanding teacher, which appeared in the 1972 edition of Leaders of America in Secondary Education. Mr. Paul is the advisor to the alumni association, Young Farmers., and Somerset County FFA Association.

Coaches make tough decisions!?

Seniors

Life is adventure in experience and when you are no longer greedy for the last drop of it, it means no more than that you have set your face, whether you know it or not, to the day when you shall deport without a backward look. Those who look backward longingly to the end die young, at whatever age.

Class History

As the Class of 1974 we can look back upon the past four years with thoughts of the great times we had and shared with one another.

Our class officers for our freshman year were Terry Leister, Scott Madey, Janice Nedrow, and Ed Caton. We held our class party with the theme "Do Your Own Thing."

Our sophomore year started off our next few years of many activities. Lynn Murray was our Homecoming attendant. Our officers for that year were Wendi Smith, Patti Weighley, Kathy Paul, and Mary Shaffer. Patti Weighley and Debra Bowser were the recipients of the Highest Scholastic Sophomore Award.

Our junior year was a rush of many activities, beginning with the arrival of our class rings. Tom Hillegas, Patti Weighley, Kathy Miller, and Audrey Deist were our class officers, and under their guidance we conducted our magazine sale to raise money for our class activities. Jo Ann Slifco represented us as Homecoming attendant for that year, where our float placed first in the contest. In April, we presented our Junior Class play, "Off The Track." Concluding our junior year, we held the Junior-Senior Prom on May 12, at Seven Springs Resort. The theme for the prom was, "Love is . . . " with Cathy Suder as our junior attendant.

Our senior year seemed to pass quickly with all our many activities. Our officers for this year were Tom Hillegas, Greg Coleman, Rose Matieszyn, and Terry Leister. During the Homecoming activities of this year, Karen Miller was selected as Queen, with Cathy Suder and Terri Claycomb as senior Attendants and again our float took first place. We presented our senior class play, "Molly Morgan", in mid-November. In January, Debbie Emerick was selected as Maple Princess and won the Miss Congeniality Award in the Maple Queen Contest in February. Dee Baker and Audrey Deist were the recipients of the Girl of the Semester Awards, consecutively. Kathleen Cook was selected as Prom Queen, with Vicki VanGilder as senior attendant. Debra Bowser and Patti Weighley were named co-Valedictorians. Baccalaureate was held on May 26, and May 28 was graduation day. With our last year at a close, we look back upon it with many memories of good times and sad times, but most of all, times spent with friends who cared, shared, and understood.

When eleven people become stranded in a train station in the middle of nowhere, there is a lot of confusion, excitement, and fun. The group just can't seem to get along together and matters become even worse when a set of valuable pearls, owned by the rich and snobbish Mrs. Vanderventer, are found to be missing. To everybody's dismay, the pearls are finally found in the lunch basket of Mrs. Guarino, who always seemed so kind and generous. All ends happily when Bill Lindsay, the law student, finally proves her innocent.

Senior Class Play Molly Morgan

Molly Morgan is the story of a poor girl who comes to the Whiteside home to stay while she is teaching at the village school. While she is there her past frequently comes back to trouble her because of her lies she told about her past. In the end she admits to her father being a drifter and says that she loves him. She finally leaves the past and turns to her future with Bill Whiteside.

And yet you'll never say goodbye
To teachers, books and schools.
Life will give you new assignments,
Harder lessons, stricter rules.
